This training will provide participants with knowledge and information to work more effectively with the LGBTQ community, including increased familiarization with terms and best practices. Participants will have the opportunity to immediately make changes to personal language, and organizational approaches that will provide a more affirming and inclusive space for the LGBTQ community.

Program Objectives

1. Participants will gain a greater knowledge and understanding of language and terminology, creating respectful and effective communication.
2. Participants will learn best practice in serving the LGBTQ community.
