Maury West, LGSW

Social Work Director
Alabama Department of Public Health

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

1. Identify signs of abuse in the adult population.
2. Understand the process of reporting abuse to the Alabama Department of Human Resources.
3. Learn the steps involved when witnessing potential abuse as an Alabama Department of Public Health employee.
4. Learn ways to set boundaries with patients.
5. Understand the dangers of desensitization to a patient's situation.

Every year thousands of elderly adults are abused in their own homes by those who are supposed to be caring for them. As adults age, their physical and mental defense capabilities begin to weaken, leaving them open and vulnerable to a variety of abuse tactics. As a home care provider, you can help! Program faculty will discuss the various forms of abuse and neglect, symptoms, and the steps you need to follow in Alabama to report incidents and get the appropriate help for your patient.
