

Sickle Cell Disease and Other Hemoglobinopathies: Newborn Screening and Beyond

Satellite Webcast

Social Work CEU Quiz

March 24, 2017

(Select only the one best answer)

1. A major cause of chronic pain which often follows multiple small or single large bone marrow infarction event:
 - A) Intracerebral Hematoma
 - B) Macrocephaly
 - C) Avascular Necrosis of Bone
 - D) Bernard Syndrome

2. Currently, the only true cure for sickle cell disease is:
 - A) Blood transfusions
 - B) Hematopoietic Stem Cell Transplantation
 - C) There currently is no cure for sickle cell disease

3. The purpose for newborn screening includes:
 - A) To ensure early identification and follow up of infants affected with certain genetic, metabolic, hormonal, or functional conditions
 - B) Identify infants with a medical condition that when untreated may lead to severe intellectual disability, developmental disabilities, and premature death.
 - C) Public Health Laws of Alabama state that each infant ≤ 28 days of age, will be tested for inheritable diseases and conditions as designated by the state board of health
 - D) All of the above

4. Sickle Cell Disease is a genetic blood disorder that affects the hemoglobin protein inside of red blood cells that carries oxygen throughout the body.
 - A) True
 - B) False

5. Sickle Cell Educator/Counselor Certification Program requires a passing score of 90% or higher on the final examination:
 - A) True
 - B) False

Name: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone #: _____ Email: _____