

BULLYING AND MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES IN CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS

Satellite Conference and Live Webcast

Friday, April 27, 2012, 9:00-10:30 a.m. (Central Time)
10:00-11:30 a.m. (Eastern) ■ 8:00-9:30 a.m. (Mountain) ■ 7:00-8:30 a.m. (Pacific)

Thousands of children and adolescents are bullied every single day, and the consequences are becoming dangerous and even deadly. Some experts say bullying is a common experience for many children and adolescents during their school years, with as many as 10% being bullied on a regular basis. Program faculty will discuss the various forms of bullying, its effects, and what's being done to respond to and prevent the practice from occurring in the first place.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

1. List the different types of bullies and bullied victims in today's society.
2. Discuss the impact of bullying on minority youth.
3. Learn about different aspects of bullying, including cyberbullying, cybersex, and texting.
4. Explain the emotional and physical effects of bullying on children and adolescents.
5. Provide information on how school personnel are responding to bullying.
6. Describe mental health, depression, and suicide issues of bullying.
