

Severe Combined Immunodeficiency: Diagnosis and Treatment

Satellite Webcast

Social Work CEU Quiz

August 23, 2016

(Select only the one best answer)

1. Common features of Severe Combined Immunodeficiency include:
 - A) Failure to thrive
 - B) Onset of infection in the neonatal period
 - C) Opportunistic infection
 - D) Chronic or recurrent thrush
 - E) All of the above

2. The treatment of confirmed Severe Combined Immunodeficiency (SCID) includes bone marrow transplantation, preferably from a histocompatible sibling.
 - A) True
 - B) False

3. Newborn screening for SCID is not practical nor cost-effective.
 - A) True
 - B) False

4. Prior to _____ every child born with Severe Combined Immunodeficiency died:
 - A) 1958
 - B) 1968
 - C) 1988
 - D) 1998

5. Transplants done early, within the first few months of life, are associated with the best outcomes in Severe Combined Immunodeficiency (SCID):
 - A) True
 - B) False

Name: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone #: _____ Email: _____