

Eliminating Health Disparities, Promoting Health Equity, and the National Partnership for Action

SATELLITE CONFERENCE AND LIVE WEBCAST
Wednesday, October 20, 2010 10:00-11:00 a.m. (Central Time)
11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. (Eastern) • 9:00-10:00 a.m. (Mountain) • 8:00-9:00 a.m. (Pacific)

Despite achievements in health and healthcare, evident racial/ethnic and rural/urban health disparities continue to exist. Because of this, the National Partnership for Action to End Health Disparities is drafting a plan to eliminate the disparities that burden the country. Program faculty will discuss this effort as well as highlight some of the initiatives being implemented across Alabama to help those affected by various social factors.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

1. Provide an overview of initiatives addressing health disparities in Alabama.
2. Provide information on services available for non-English speaking populations.
3. Provide information on evidenced-based interventions assisting healthcare providers, patients, and caregivers with reducing the risks of diagnosed health disparities.
4. Provide an overview of community outreach initiatives targeting underserved and high-risk groups impacted by social determinants.
5. Provide information on the National Partnership for Action to End Health Disparities.
