

ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH
Office of Minority Health
Satellite or Web Program
Post Test

April's Tornado Fury: The Social Impact on Personal Care and Health Access (Part 2 of 2)

For the following questions select True or False.

1. The Alabama Department of Public Health Center for Emergency Preparedness is responsible for coordinating Alabama's health, medical, and social services in the event of public health threats, weather alerts, emergencies, and natural disasters.

True False

2. The Alabama Department of Public Health Center for Emergency Preparedness has medical assets available for emergency preparedness, such as, mobile medical tents, water purification systems, strategic national stockpile, and chempacks.

True False

3. Stress related factors associated with post-tornado lifestyle changes may have an impact on domestic violence.

True False

4. ADPH Emergency Preparedness Responders have a major role in the wake of a disaster.

True False

5. As a volunteer, when assisting a community post-disaster, it is important to have the trust of the community you are assisting and be able to communicate in their language.

True False

6. Response efforts, when working with affected communities, need to provide access to food, clothing, shelter, and other basic needs.

True False

Send completed evaluation to: ADPH, Office of Minority Health, Attn: Sandra Jones, 200 Monroe Street, Suite 700, Montgomery, Alabama 36104. Email completed evaluations to Sandra.Jones@adph.state.al.us or fax completed evaluations to (334) 206-5173.