

HIV/AIDS in Minorities with Tuberculosis as a Co-Infection

SATELLITE CONFERENCE AND LIVE WEBCAST

Wednesday, December 16, 2009 2:00-3:00 p.m. (Central Time)

3:00-4:00 p.m. (Eastern) • 1:00-2:00 p.m. (Mountain) • 12:00-1:00 p.m. (Pacific)

Our series on health disparities in minorities in Alabama continues. We turn our focus to HIV/AIDS and Tuberculosis in this discussion. That combination of disease often proves deadly for patients. Find out what effects HIV/AIDS and Tuberculosis have on each other and what's being done to combat the problem.

The content of this program is based on the policies and procedures of the Alabama Department of Public Health, Alabama and federal statutes, rules, regulations, and guidelines. Viewers not employed by the ADPH should always check to clarify whether the content is accurate according to the statutes, regulations, and policies of their jurisdiction and agency.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

1. Learn general information about the impact of HIV/AIDS in Alabama and minority populations.
2. Understand why Tuberculosis is the leading co-infection for persons living with HIV/AIDS.
3. Discover the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention approved interventions for addressing HIV/AIDS.
4. Gain knowledge about the HIV/AIDS programs and initiatives implemented by community, state, and regional organizations.
