Dear Dr. Miller,

On behalf of the Public Health Accreditation Board staff and Board of Directors, I want to express our sincere congratulations on your health department's accreditation. This achievement demonstrates your commitment to transparency, accountability, and a culture of quality improvement. We are so proud of you for putting your work out for peer review against national health department performance standards.

Enclosed please find your plaque, which we hope you will hang in a place of honor in your health department. We have also enclosed your accreditation certificate for you to use in your publicity, grant applications, and other types of communication about your health department.

Best wishes as you continue to promote and protect the health of the public!

Sincerely,

Kaye Bender, PhD, RN, FAAN
President and Chief Executive Officer
