

BEYOND GENDER: THE BASICS OF TRANSGENDER CARE

Satellite Conference and Live Webcast

Friday, November 18, 2016, 1:00-3:00 p.m. (Central Time)
2:00-4:00 p.m. (Eastern) ■ 12:00-2:00 p.m. (Mountain) ■ 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. (Pacific)

This program will give current definitions of sex and gender. There will be a discussion about healthcare for LGBTQ patients, along with a review of the challenges in obtaining care by the LGBTQ population and in providing care by the clinician. An important issue with care in the LGBTQ population is obtaining a good history. Program faculty will describe how to interview and ask the correct and appropriate questions regarding pregnancy and prevention, family building options, fertility options and fertility preservation. Aspects of healthcare utilizing the best practices for the LGBTQ community will be provided.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES:

1. Define current gender affirmative language and terminology.
2. Distinguish the difference between sex and gender.
3. Discuss “safe place” for LGBTQ clients in your healthcare setting using best practices.
4. Describe the basics of gender affirmative medical care, including hormone treatment, basics of surgery and preventative care.
5. Describe the basics of care for transgender youth.
6. Identify strategies for pregnancy prevention for LGBTQ clients.
7. Differentiate the different models of parenting and pathways to pregnancy within the LGBTQ community.
8. List four online resources for providing gender affirming care.
