TESTING PERINATALLY EXPOSED HEPATITIS C VIRUS INFANTS AND CHILDREN

Mother's Hepatitis Cantibody or Hepatitis CRNA RESULT Infants who Mother If Hepatitis C is have been not detected in has prior or current exposed the Mother. Hepatitis C should be If there are risk infection. tested of factors OR possible Mother Hepatitis C exposure is should be at the suspected, retest for antibodies 6 referred to appropriate provider. age. months or later. 2 Months to If 18 months or older: Anti-Hepatitis C <18 Months of age: Hepatitis C with reflex to RNA test Hepatitis C RNA HCV ANTIBODY HCV ANTIBODY Hepatitis C Hepatitis C Hepatitis C Hepatitis C Detected: not Detected: Antibodies not Detected: Refer child to No more Detected: No more a Hepatitis Hepatitis C testing is testing is C provider needed RNA testing needed is needed

HIV Office of Prevention and Care

Alabama Department of Public Health The RSA Tower, Suite 1278 201 Monroe Street Montgomery, Alabama 36104

Hotline: 1-800-228-0469