

CHECKLIST FOR DEVELOPMENT OF INFECTIOUS DISEASE PREVENTION PLAN

- () Current method of generally maintaining infection control in both the service living/working quarters and on vehicles*. Items to be addressed:
 1. Personal Hygiene and Hand Washing
 2. Use of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
 3. Management of Sharps
 4. Clinical Waste Including Disposal of Sharps
 5. Linen
 6. Spillages of Blood and Body Fluids
 7. Cleaning, Repairs, and Servicing of Medical Devices and Vehicles
 8. General Cleaning for Ambulance/Fire Stations
- () Current method of infection control while providing patient care.
- () Current method of infection control after coming in contact with a patient, both on trucks and in/around service living/working quarters.
- () Current policies regarding personnel when someone calls in sick or reports that they are sick while on duty.
- () List of any specific infectious disease control trainings (such as Ebola).
- () Method of how EMS personnel collect biohazardous waste produced or obtained by personnel, through patient care, from the scene of a prehospital incident, and how this waste is handled on the vehicle and in/around the living/working quarters.

*Both transport and non-transport vehicles.