Your Voice. Our Community. Ending HIV.

Join the Ending HIV Advisory (EHA) and be part of the solution.

The Ending HIV Advisory brings together community voices, providers, and leaders to make a real impact and end the HIV epidemic in Alabama.

Real People. Real Voices. Real change.

EHA advises on local HIV prevention and care efforts, ensures community needs are heard, and helps shape strategies that save lives.

Why join EHA?

Make an impact: Help improve prevention, care, and support for people affected by HIV.

Share your expertise: Your lived experience and perspective matter.

Build connections: Collaborate with community leaders, providers, and advocates.

Be a voice: Advocate for policies and resources that strengthen our communities.

Create a legacy: Help build a healthier, stronger Alabama for today and tomorrow.

Who can join?

Anyone who is passionate about ending HIV and representing our diverse communities, including people with HIV, community members, providers, advocates, and more!

All voices are welcome.

What to expect

- Meetings convene every two months (in person, virtual, or hybrid)
- Meaningful discussions and decision-making
- Opportunities to lead initiatives and projects
- On-going learning and capacity building

Small Commitment. Big Difference.

Just a few hours a month can change lives for years to come.

Be part of the movement.

- ✔ Your community.
- ✔ Your voice.
- ✔ Your future.
