

Changing Paradigms in Maternal and Child Health: Innovative Lessons from the Life Course
Satellite Webcast
July 18, 2012
Social Worker Exam

(Select only the one best answer)

1. Rates of care for pregnant women receiving first trimester prenatal care in Alameda County, CA has:
 - A) Stayed the same
 - B) Decreased
 - C) Increased

2. An African-American child in west Oakland, CA is 2.5 times more likely to be behind in vaccines than a white child in affluent Oakland, CA. :
 - A) True
 - B) False

3. Interventions that reduce risks and increase protective factors can change the health trajectory of individuals and populations:
 - A) True
 - B) False

4. The number of stores in West Oakland, CA providing healthy food choices has _____ between 1940 and 2010. :
 - A) Stayed the same
 - B) Decreased
 - C) Increased

5. In Alameda County The Building Block Collaborative: Bill of Rights for Children includes:
 - A. Eat healthy foods
 - B. Access healthcare that promotes well-being
 - C. Receive quality education
 - D. Live, play and grow in a clean safe place
 - E. All the above

Name: _____

Address: _____ City: _____

State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone #: _____ Email: _____