

The Impact of Financial Exploitation on the Health Care of Seniors

Satellite Conference and Live Webcast

Wednesday, October 17, 2012, 2:00-4:00 p.m. (Central Time)
3:00-5:00 p.m. (Eastern) ■ 1:00-3:00 p.m. (Mountain) ■ 12:00-2:00 p.m. (Pacific)

Financial exploitation of the senior population is becoming a common occurrence. Studies suggest older individuals are being targeted because they possess more assets, or have cognitive, mental, or physical disabilities that leave them dependent on others to make financial decisions for them. This reliance on others can often leave seniors vulnerable to theft, exploitation, or undue influence. Program faculty will discuss the various types of financial exploitation, how it affects a person's health, and ways to prevent and report suspected abuse.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

1. Define various types of financial exploitation.
2. Identify the different types of financial exploitation and who to report it to.
3. Learn how financial exploitation affects the health of the victim.
4. Learn steps to take to prevent financial exploitation of elders.
5. Learn what the state of Alabama is doing to prevent elder financial exploitation.
