Alabama Trauma System Annual Education Update

In an effort to clarify Alabama Trauma System Standards of Care, and to reduce the number of QA issues related to noncompliance of Alabama Trauma System protocols and procedures, the Office of EMS and Trauma regional staff will be offering monthly regional trauma training sessions. Meeting dates are available on the ADPH website under the Regional Training pages.

Topics that will be covered in these sessions include "The Qualities of a Good Trauma System;" a review of motor vehicle crash trauma; system-entry criteria for trauma patients; trauma system patient routing; and a review of the QA/QI issues for the previous calendar year.

The Alabama Trauma System is designed to save lives by correctly identifying patients who need trauma care, anticipating the resources needed to treat patients appropriately, and routing trauma patients to the appropriate trauma center for the first time. In order to meet these goals you must be familiar with the procedures and protocols of the trauma system. Please plan to attend these important educational opportunities as they become available in your region.

Provider Service News

The Office of EMS & Trauma recently completed renewals for services in the East, Southeast, and Gulf regions. A total of 132 services renewed. The next renewal cycle will be for services in the North, BREMSS, and West regions. These services have a June 30, 2012 expiration date. There are 163 services eligible for renewal in June. OEMS&T will begin accepting renewal applications for services in the North, BREMSS, and West regions April 15, 2012.

Several agencies utilized the web-based provider application during this last renewal cycle. This application is submitted on-line and requires a convenience fee of $4.00. License fee and convenience fee must be paid by credit card.

Currently, OEMS&T staff is working diligently to ensure all medical control physicians have successfully completed the required web-based Medical Control course. This course and current credentials in ACLS or PALS are required for off-line physicians. On-line medical directors must also possess a current ATLS certification. If the physician is board certified in emergency medicine or pediatric emergency medicine, the above alphabet courses are not required.

OEMS&T staff will notify agencies who submit applications with ineligible physicians listed as their off-line physician. It will be the responsibility of the provider service to procure the services of an eligible medical control physician as required by Alabama EMS Rules.
