

National Preparedness Month 30 Sec PSA

Disaster can strike with little to no warning. If faced with one today, would you and your family be able to safely survive?

September is National Preparedness Month. There are some things you can do now to keep you and your family safe.

Review your insurance policies and make sure all valuables are covered. Have an evacuation plan. Download city and state apps for emergency alerts and updates.

Preparing for a natural disaster today can save you from devastation tomorrow.

This is brought to you by the Alabama Department of Public Health and this station.
