

Organ Donation 30 Sec PSA

The urgent need for organ transplants grows daily with more than 115,000 people nationally and nearly 2,000 people in Alabama anxiously waiting for a donor. A choice to become an organ donor can make a life-saving difference.

Through Legacy of Hope, Alabama's organ and tissue donation alliance, you can learn how you can become an organ donor. For more information, or to sign up as a donor online, visit Legacy-of-Hope-dot-org. Again, that website is Legacy-of-Hope-dot-org.
