

STATE OF ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF
PUBLIC HEALTH

Rabies 30 Sec PSA

Did you know that Alabama law requires all pets to be currently vaccinated against rabies?

This is State Public Health veterinarian, Dee Jones. Rabies vaccination not only protects dogs and cats from the deadly virus, but it also significantly reduces the risk to the owners who could be unknowingly exposed by their unvaccinated pets.

Help us protect you, your family, and your pet by getting them vaccinated today!
