

“Share Your Smile with Alabama” Photo Contest - Official Rules

The Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) is excited to announce our second annual “Share Your Smile with Alabama” statewide photo contest, giving the opportunity for Alabama parents to showcase their child’s smile. From the top six entrants, two grand prize winners - one boy and one girl - will be selected by the ADPH Bureau of Family Health Services.

To submit a photo, go to www.alabamapublichealth.gov/oralhealth and complete a submission form. There is no entry fee for the contest. Deadline for submissions is Wednesday, November 28, by midnight CST.

Winners will be invited to attend a live news conference to be held at the Alabama Department of Public Health in Montgomery on February 1. Winners will be notified before statewide announcements are made. Winners will be responsible for their own transportation to and from ADPH. Winners will receive a gift basket filled with goodies supplied by the Oral Health Office. Winners will be photographed in the ADPH studio the day of the live news conference, featured in future oral health marketing publications and highlighted on ADPH’s social media sites (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and Pinterest) and on alabamapublichealth.gov.

Applicant Requirements

Submissions must be made by parents residing in the state of Alabama. Children must currently attend third grade at a school located in Alabama.

Photo Requirements

- Photos must be submitted in jpeg file format and not exceed 20 megabytes.
- Photo must be an unedited original photo (no photoshopped entries; no logo or watermarks added or allowed)
- Selfies are not allowed.
