Jane Williams and Herbert Cooper, representing First Baptist Church, requested a side walk on south side of the new Christian Life Center be replaced against the building with a four foot sidewalk with curb on each side of the walk. The city will replace sidewalk and curb on the cities property but First Baptist Church will be responsible to pay for curb on their side of property. In order to replace side walk the tree on the south west corner will have to come down. A request was made to save the center tree if possible. Don Gesler, Laborer of side walks and curb, will separate cost for inner curb expense and charge to the First Baptist Church.

Lowell Gober made a motion to cut the tree on the south west corner, seconded by Johnny Cleveland. Unanimously passed.
